WHY LETC?

To help departments get the quality firearms training they need, LETC combines world-class instructors and a comprehensive curriculum into a single training event. You get advanced instructor training for several different subjects, all in the same week and all at one low price. It would be impossible for any department on its own to bring together such a wide variety of superior trainers and topics, which is why LETC has become such an important opportunity. As many have learned, you better come ready to shoot because LETC keeps you working on the range all day, every day. Don't let the low cost fool you. LETC provides the most and best training you will find anywhere at any price!

SCHEDULING

Monday is a travel day with check-in and opening ceremonies on Monday evening. Classes will be held Tuesday through Friday from 9:00 am to about 5:00 pm.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

HIGH PERFORMANCE HANDGUN

Bank Miller / Director of Training - International Training Inc.

For better or for worse, the handgun remains the primary firearm for law enforcement work. This intensive program will help you develop techniques and tactics that are tactically efficient and effective for the handgun under stressful situations. Based on economy of motion, the unique techniques and tactics presented will elevate your operational efficiency far beyond that of basic skill development. You will be able to respond to hazardous situations rapidly and safely with determination and confidence. This will very likely be the most intense and action-packed firearms training class you will ever take.

- Handgun safety and handling
- Sighted vs. unsighted shooting
- Multiple threats / multiple shots
- Engaging moving threats
- Understanding speed shooting and reloading
- Alternate shooting positions and ground fighting
- Shooting while moving
- Dominant and support hand drawing, firing, reloading, and stoppage clearing

Bank has 30 years of federal, local, and military law enforcement experience with 12 years as the chief firearms instructor for the DEA, the FBI Academy, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, and the National Narcotics Training Institute. He spent 13 years as the Director of Training for the Sigarms Academy, and is the current Director of Training for International Training Inc.

PATROL RIFLE INSTRUCTOR

Ben Kurata / Senior Instructor - International Training Inc.

Training trainers is what this program is all about. It is critical that the instructor that teaches others be a role model for those he or she represents and trains. This program will definitely prepare you for this role by providing the tools necessary for training law enforcement personnel with sound tactics and techniques that will improve safety and overall skill under a variety of situations.

- Range operations and safety concerns
- Understanding ammunition and its application
- Development of tactical and precision shooting
- One handed / disabled techniques
- Coaching techniques
- Teaching alternate shooting positions
- Outline and lesson plan development
- Selection and use of lights and sighting systems

Ben has 26 years experience in adult learning and development applied to law enforcement training and criminal justice, including 11 years of operational, management, and training experience in state, federal, and private sector criminal justice organizations. He is currently a senior instructor for International Training Inc.

SUPERIOR FIREARMS TRAINING ON A BUDGET

Mike Lehner / Safariland / Action Target Academy

This course will demonstrate how the many challenges of modern firearms training can be met, even by departments with extremely tight budgets. You will experience first hand how simple portable targets can be used by any department on any range to elevate practical firearms training to dramatic new levels. Learn how to set up and conduct challenging tactical scenarios that expose critical weaknesses in equipment and technique. Based on the concept of "get them out of their comfort zone", this course will provide you with powerful new training tools that can be used on even the most primitive ranges.

Mike has been a law enforcement firearms instructor for 28 years, and has been a Certified California POST LE Firearms instructor since 1979. He has achieved the status of CPPA Grand Master, IDPA Master, and IPSC "A" Class, and is the 1992 NSCA US Open Class Champion. He has been a guest instructor throughout North America and Europe.

RAPID DEPLOYMENT PISTOL OPERATOR

John Krupa / President - Team Spartan Tactical Training

This advanced course takes the student beyond the realm of defensive applications of the handgun and introduces the student to using the handgun as an offensive weapon. When responding to active shooter incidents, first responders will not always have long-guns available to deploy and will take immediate action using their duty handgun to stop an assailant's deadly actions. This course will focus on aggressive, decisive action and rapid deployment concepts during continuous movement drills while engaging multiple threats.

John has over 16 years of experience in law enforcement and has served as a beat officer, rapid response officer, field training officer and firearms instructor with the Chicago Police Department. He is a graduate firearms instructor from the Secret Service Academy, F.B.I., D.E.A. and FLETC. John is founder and president of Team Spartan and Director of Training Operations for the DS Arms Law Enforcement Training Division. He has presented firearms training courses at previous ASLET, IALEFI, ILEETA, TTPOA and LETC training conferences.

SUCCESS WITH REMEDIAL SHOOTERS!

George Harris / Director of Training - SigSauer Academy

This course will show instructors how to maximize their students' natural attributes through specialized teaching methodology that accelerates the learning process in achieving success. The foundation of Objective Based Training is simple, believable, and easily reproducible teaching methods that are non-arguable and show immediate results. Nothing is really new technically speaking, but a great deal is new in presentation, demonstration and expected results. The application of Objective Based Training will allow firearms instructors to reduce training time, decrease rounds expended and greatly improve remedial students. The following are just some of the topics that will be presented:

- Only 2 things are necessary to hit
- Analogical teaching
- Visual cues
- Tactile consideration
- One hand shooting
- Working with imperfect vision
- Overcoming the self preservation response
- Tricks of the trade

George Harris has spent over 30 years in the field of Adult Education with more than 19 years at the SIG Sauer Academy. George is the Coach and Firing Member of the Internationally recognized United States Army Reserve Combat Marksmanship Team. George has a long list of Instructor certifications from Federal and State Agencies as well as private training organizations. George is active in a number of professional organizations which include among others, IALEFI, American Society for Training and Development and American Society for Industrial Security. As Director of the SIG Sauer Academy, George is committed to the safe and successful use of firearms through using the SIG Principle of Training. Simple Is Good!

LIVE-FIRE SHOOTHOUSE

Chuck Habermehl / CQB Close Quarters Battle Inc.

Live Fire training in a Shoothouse is possibly the most hazardous training one can be involved in. It is not only dangerous for the operators, but also for the CQB Range Safety Officers. Over the years, in various Live Fire House training around the world, accidents involving injuries and death have occurred. Unfortunately, very few organizations have RSO's that have received formal training in the safe operations of the Shoothouse. CQB-Close Quarters Battle, Inc.'s CQB/RSO program is the only complete "hands-on" course of instruction that prepares the RSO for this difficult and dangerous operation. This course is designed to educate the shoothouse safety officer in all facets of Live Fire training through the use of Live Fire drills. Candidates are tested repeatedly on shoothouse operations and conduct actual Live Fire entries.

- Liability
- Safety Rules and Regulations
- Managing Shoothouse Operations
- Target Placement
- Catwalk Safety and Use
- Accepted Entry Techniques
- Stacking
- Muzzle Awareness
- Hallway Clearing
- Cover Drills
- Scenario Training
- Command and Control

Chuck has 35 years of teaching experience with emphasis on CQB, hostage rescue, defensive tactics, combat shooting, and protective services.

1987 - Present: President of CQB-Close Quarters Battle, Inc. Taught thousands of military and police personnel worldwide, including elite units (US Navy Seals Teams 2,4,5,8) Green Beret (5th Grp, 7th Grp.) Army Special Forces, Air Force Special Ops., Canadian Special Forces, Danish Special Forces, Peruvian Special Forces, Special Weapons & Tactics Teams. 1978 - 1987: Senior Instructor, Police Academy Southeast Florida Institute of Criminal Justice
1972 - 1975: U.S. Marine Corps - Firearms and Tactics Instructor.
